Dear Sam:

Appreciate the significant contribution you have made in bringing our position on Watch Committee revitalization together. Unfortunately, my staff felt that our earlier correspondence concerning Watch revitalization fulfilled your request for comments on Intelligence Warning. Hence the delay in my reply.

Your analysis of the Intelligence Warning process is most informative and, with some minor changes which I have identified in my 29 October letter to you and the attached enclosure, is in consonance with the procedures we have discussed. I understand that our action officers have been in contact and generally agree on these changes, especially in view of Mr. Colby's 4 November letter to General Graham.

Hope the enclosed comments are of use and that our respective agencies can give some new vitality to this critical function.

Sincerely,

EUGENE F. TIGHE, JR.
Lieutenant General, USAF
Deputy Director
